Product Description

China New Energy Vehicles Hybrid EV BYD Song Pro Electric Car SUV Cars

The BYD Song Pro is a hybrid electric vehicle (HEV) produced by BYD Auto, a Chinese automaker specializing in electric vehicles. The Song Pro is part of BYD's Song series, which includes both hybrid and all-electric models.

The exact specifications of the BYD Song Pro may vary depending on the model and year of production. Generally, hybrid electric vehicles like the Song Pro can run on electric power alone for shorter distances, and the internal combustion engine kicks in when additional power is needed or when the battery is depleted.

the BYD Song Pro had several variants, including both front-wheel drive and all-wheel drive options. It featured a spacious interior with modern amenities and advanced safety features.
